THE HARLINSDALE BARN WILL UNDERGO A MAKEOVER THIS WINTER!

The LARGE BARN at Harlinsdale Farm will undergo a facelift this winter/spring with construction expecting to take up until June 30, 2013 for the project.

What will the project entail?

We are starting from the ground up including: foundations will have additional support added, new interior framing and bracing along current framing members to stabilize the facility, new roof framing, strengthening of wall, new roofing, repair to awning windows located around the top of the building, new exterior siding where needed along with trim at windows and doors, doors to be repaired and made functional exterior of facility to be painted.

Rules to follow:

There will be a construction fence located around the facility and it will be off limits to staff and citizens alike during construction. Thank you all for your patience and cooperation.

Speaking of Harlinsdale....

Check out the holiday lights on the entrance fencing to the park.

Have a great holiday season!
